WELL, SANTA, I FEEL I AM DESERVING THIS YEAR OF THE "NUCLEAR FUSION HOME CHEMISTRY SET 2000, MODEL NUMBER 3ZK9487." I HAVE ALSO PRINTED OUT A LIST OF ACCESSORIES INCLUDING A DECONTAMINATION CHAMBER AND REGULATION LAB SUIT...
...PLEASE DELIVER THESE ITEMS TO THE FOLLOWING ADDRESS, AS I WILL BE SPENDING CHRISTMAS DAY AT MY GRANDMOTHER'S CONDOMINIUM IN FLORIDA AND WOULD LIKE TO BEGIN EXPERIMENTS RIGHT AWAY. PLEASE NOTE THAT I HAVE INCLUDED A BLUEPRINT OF GRANDMA'S CONDOMINIUM, AS SHE DOESN'T HAVE A FIREPLACE WHICH WILL MAKE IT NECESSARY FOR YOU TO COME THROUGH THE LAUNDRY CHUTE WHICH I HAVE MARKED WITH AN ARROW, AND WHICH WILL LEAD YOU DIRECTLY TO THE PLASTIC CHRISTMAS TREE STANDING IN THE FAR CORNER OF THE DEN WHERE YOU WILL THEN KINDLY PLACE THESE ITEMS.
ANYTHING ELSE?
YES. HOW DO YOU MAKE THE REINDEER FLY?

CARTOON NOTES

Merry Christmas, everybody! You've just completed another issue of CARTOON NETWORK STARRING featuring the man all guys want to be like when we grow up, Johnny Bravo. Wow! Did you see all those women all over him? I wonder if I dyed my hair blond and put it up like Johnny if I could get all the girls he does. I'd better not try; my wife would kill me. Oh well, I can dream.

By the way, we need more letters! I guess you guys don't know that you can write to us, so I'll tell you: You can write to us. Please let us know how we're doing. We'll print all the best letters and pictures. So write a letter. Write two!

Dear Cartoon Network Starring:

I loved CNS #2 with the one, the only Johnny Bravo! You did a great job with the comic! But then again "I'm a tasteless, uncouth, mindless, tone-deaf, randy, blokish, semi-literate space bum!"

I enjoyed the comic too, Eileen! But I missed hearing the voices!

Thank you very much! Glx, Sptzll, Glaah! From that 5th-Dimensional Imp and DC Boards #1 SUGAR & SPIKE Fan.

Thanks, guys...I think. I'm not sure exactly what you meant, but I know you liked Johnny Bravo.

Other DCU Kids Line Titles:

Dexter's Laboratory #6: Dexter is contaminated with an illness that even he can't cure: the chicken pox. Can he stop the itching? Find out in "Chicken Scratch." Plus, ever wish you had more time in the day to do want you want? So does Dexter. In "Wait a Minute," Dexter invents a way to give himself all the time in the world, but at what price?

Scooby-Doo #31: Scooby and the gang face the most bone-breaking, body-slamming ghost ever, a phantom wrestler. Guess that means that Shaggy and Scooby will have to tag-team him in "The Phantom of the Wrestling Ring." Then, Scooby and Shaggy face their worst nightmare—a vegetarian dinner—in "Artichokes and Old Paste."

Looney Tunes #61: Bugs meets the dame of his dreams. Too bad she already has a boyfriend (or should we say ZIP Code) who goes by the name of Thud in "Roll Out the Bunny." Put on a few holiday pounds? Well, maybe you should try the Dechubby-izer 2000 like Porky Pig in "All's Weight That Ends Weight."

Animaniacs #57: Pinky and the Brain's new plan for world domination includes making Brainy Babies voodoo dolls of everyone in the world in "Bean Counter Brain."

next issue:

It's udder chaos when Chicken is left to baby-sit Cow by himself in "Baby-sitting the Bovine." Plus, Cow is given the opportunity to pursue her dream in the Synchronized Milking contest, but she can't do it alone. She'll require the most driven and dedicated partner ever — Chicken! Also, I.M. Weasel is at it again in "A Clone Again, Naturally."

This month's cover brought to you by Dave Schwartz, Mike DeCarlo and Dave Tanguay.
